Slutgiltiga beskrivningar av goda svar 12.5.2020

Grunderna enligt vilka bedömningen gjorts framkommer i de slutgiltiga beskrivningarna av goda svar. Uppgiften om hur bedömningsgrunderna tillämpats på examinandens provprestation utgörs av de poäng som examinanden fått för sin provprestation, de slutgiltiga beskrivningarna av goda svar och de föreskrifter gällande bedömningen som nämnden gett i sina föreskrifter och anvisningar. De slutgiltiga beskrivningarna av goda svar innehåller och beskriver inte nödvändigtvis alla godkända svarsalternativ eller alla godkända detaljer i ett godkänt svar. Eventuella bedömningsmarkeringar i provprestationerna anses vara jämfällbara med anteckningar och sålunda ger de, eller avsaknaden av markeringar, inte direkta uppgifter om hur bedömningsgrunderna tillämpats på provprestationen.

Fulla poäng kan endast ges för ett svar som inte innehåller felaktig information.

Provprestationerna får inte kopieras. De är sekretessbelagda handlingar.

De kriterier utifrån vilka uppgifter 21 och 22 bedöms finns beskrivna i en särskild tabell i

Studentexamensnämndens föreskrifter om proven i det andra inhemska språket och främmande språk.

2.1. Colorado Law

Here's a reminder for teen drivers: don't let your friends pile into your car. The law limits the number of people under age 21 in your car during the first year of your license. Friends can also be a huge distraction. Driving with just one friend doubles your risk of a fatal crash. You're in the driver's seat. Be in control. Visit www.coteendriver.com for more information.

2.2. At the Airport

Good afternoon passengers. This is an important announcement for passengers on flight B8921 to Rome. Because of a sudden interruption in our data connections, we are now asking the passengers who booked their flights online to immediately register at the information desk. Please have your boarding pass and identification ready.

2.3. On a Train

The passengers leaving the train at the next stop are kindly requested to proceed to the middle part of the train, as all cars do not stop next to the platform. Thank you.

6.1.

Hi. My name is Bronco Billy and I'm a recruiter, or headhunter, working mainly within the creative industries. Your name has come to me on a confidential basis as someone who is very good at what you do. I have a situation to discuss with you about an interesting vacancy; can you talk privately?

6.2.

Good afternoon! I noticed a number of your ads on Facebook and Twitter promoting your band's records and t-shirts, and felt you could really boost your sales by making just a few small changes. We have worked with some major acts like The Killers to manage their social media ad campaigns. I'd love to learn more about yours, and also share some ideas that have worked really well for us. Can we find a 15-minute window next week for a brief call?

6.3.

This is Dan Walker, and I'm calling some secondary school students in the area to find out if they are a good fit for our new programme aimed specifically at young people. What we do in a sentence is we provide people with assistance on personal financial matters. Does this sound generally interesting to you?

Hi, this is Eric from Armadillo. People have relied on us for 20 years to protect them, their family, their home and their possessions. Based on the size of your apartment, I recommend the 'Silver Plan' as a starting point for you. Today, it's only 19.95€/month for the next 12 months, and we have a promotion running today that includes an additional alarm control box for free. What day and time works best for us to come and install the system this week?
